Are out of context, I'm not sure what they refer to.

In 1864 George Hunter and his widowed sister ran a pack train from Walla Walla Washington to Boise, Idaho.

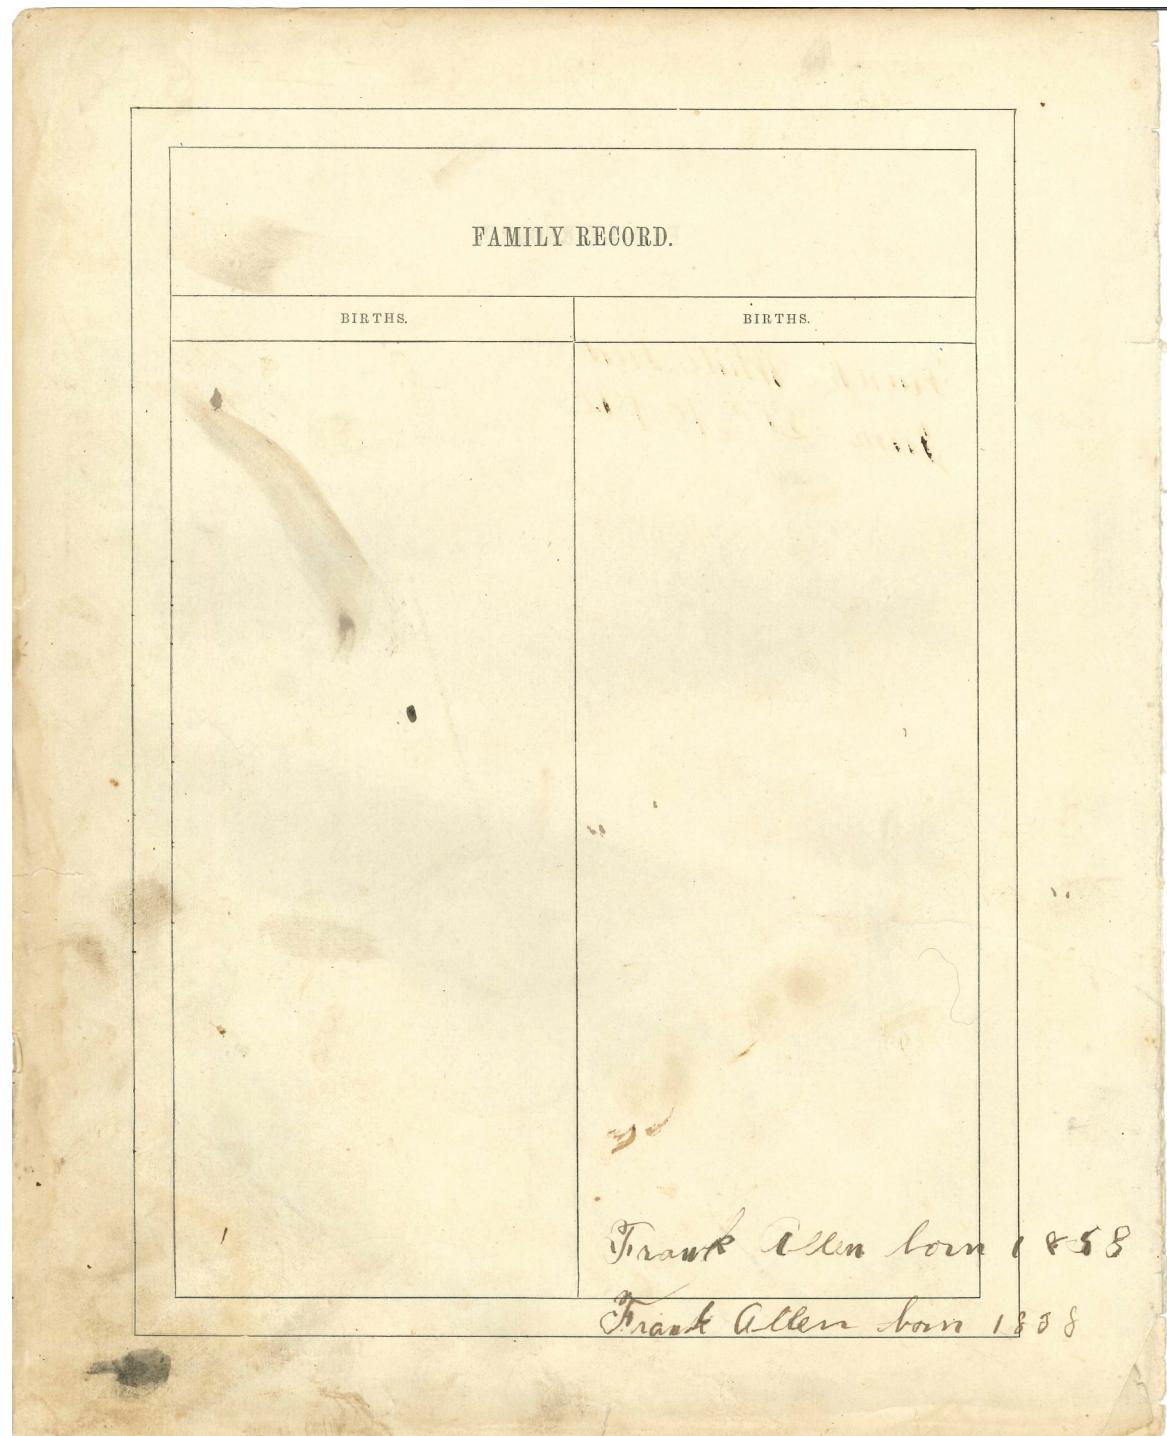

"We took another partner in with us, named Stephen Allen. Allen had lost his wife some time before, and his daughter Elizabeth (or Libby, as she was called), with her baby brother, were left in the care of my sister [Louisa]."

- George Hunter, "Reminiscence of an Old Timer"

Frank Allen born 1858

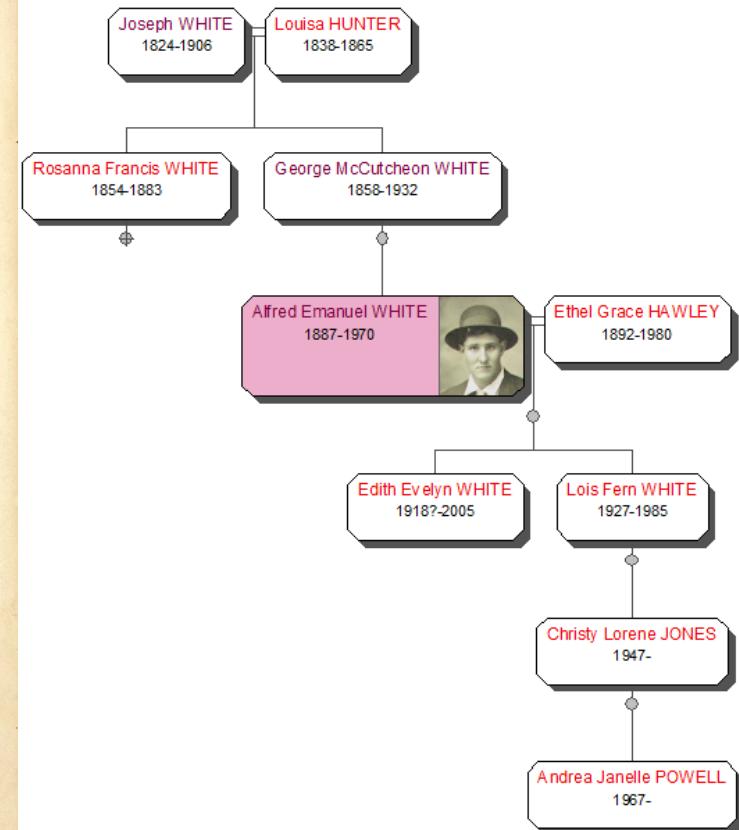

Frank Allen was the son of Stephen & Hanna (Filkins) Allen and the brother of Elizabeth Ann (Allen) Hunter. Elizabeth was married to George Hunter, who was the brother of Louisa (Hunter) White.

Alfred Emanuel White

Alfred Emanuel White was the son of George McCutcheon White who was Rosanna's sister. I inherited these pages from Alfred's daughter Edith. I suspect this is Edith's handwriting.

The date noted in the margin, April 27 1859, is probably the actual date of entry.

Joseph White & Louisa Hunter was married June 4th 1853

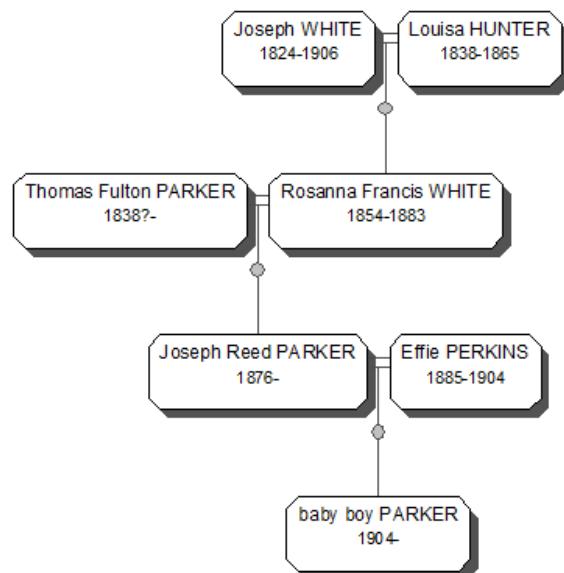

Rosanna Frances White was married to T.F. Parker

This looks like the same hand writing as the record of Effie's death.

The last entry is written at the bottom of column 2, probably by the same hand that wrote Rosanna Parker's entries.
